FKE in partnership with Norwegian Enterprise Confederation (NHO) proudly brings to you:

THE FEMALE FUTURE

THE FEMALE FUTURE
The Female Future

Mrs. Jacqueline Mugo, OGW
Executive Director

The aim
To strengthen gender equality in the workplace, improve women's representation in management and control, as well as draw more women to the top echelon of the private and public sectors as part of the efforts to ensure sufficient qualified women power in all organisations and leadership positions.

The key steps in the programme
- How to manage a large audience and negotiate your issues
- Providing leadership at the apex
- Managing organisations effectively
- How to identify, develop & implement growth strategies in any organisation
- Show that leadership skills are not gender based
- International endorsement of the competency by a top 50 business school worldwide
- The growth oriented career lady in mid-to-top level positions or Board membership. The figure rose to 89% in 2012.
- A similar programme was started in Norway about 10 years ago by our partners because of a lack of qualified women power in all organisations and leadership positions. The growth oriented career lady in mid-to-top level positions or Board membership. The figure rose to 89% in 2012. NB. A similar programme was started in Norway about 10 years ago by our partners because of a lack of qualified women power in all organisations and leadership positions.

Who this programme is for
The growth oriented career lady in mid-to-top level management position in the private sector, public sector and civil society, aspiring to be at the apex of both political and corporate leadership.

NB. A similar programme was started in Norway about 10 years ago by our partners because of a lack of qualified women power in all organisations and leadership positions. The figure rose to 89% in 2012. This is what FKE has developed and customised for the all ambitious women in Kenya.
